

XM is the best source for weather and traffic updates. I use it multiple times each day in trying to navigate the Los Angeles area freeways. It provides a better service than does any terrestrial radio station, all you have to do is listen to it and compare that with the 15 second sound bite traffic update on regular radio. The NAB should be concentrating on cleaning up language and sexual content of their member stations.